IBD CHASES AND SHROUDS

SHROUDS ARE TO BE USED IN CONJUNCTION WITH CHASE COVERS

Chase Covers / with hole

CCH

Chase Covers with hole for pipe can be ordered with the unit in either stainless steel, or stainless steel with a copper dress out skirt, so from the ground the entire chase cover appears copper. These covers are for protection of the stone from water. Also they add a complimentary visual effect.

Chase Covers / without hole

CCWH

Chase Covers without hole can be ordered with the unit in either stainless steel, or stainless steel with a copper dress out skirt, so from the ground the entire chase cover appears copper. Covers with no hole would be for vent free (pipeless) units. These covers are for protection of the stone from water. Also they add a complimentary visual effect.

GOTHIC CHASE SHROUD EXTENSION SGOC

Gothic chase shroud extension is available in a choice of stainless steel or copper. Powder coating of stainless steel also available at an additional charge. It would be used to give more height and massive appearance to the other shroud choices. The base can be a choice of the Roman or the Grecian shroud, Grecian shroud shown.

ROMAN CHASE SHROUD SRC

Roman Chase Shroud is available in a choice of stainless steel or copper. Powder coating of stainless steel also available at an additional charge.

GRECIAN CHASE SHROUD SGC

Grecian Chase Shroud is available in a choice of stainless steel or copper. Powder coating of stainless steel also available at an additional charge.

ARTISIAN CHASE SHROUD SAC

Artisian Chase Shroud is available in a choice of stainless steel or copper. Powder coating of stainless steel also available at an additional charge.
