GARDEN FIREPLACES

SOLD THRU YOUR IBD AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR

Garden fireplaces are designed to fit in areas and applications where larger fireplaces will not fit. They are designed as gas or gel fuel only units and can either be ventfree or vented. They come in small, medium and large size to accommodate most areas. Your local distributor has selected the design and size that they sell. The sizes of units can come in unfinished, kits with the finish materials, or finished with a stamped concrete finish. Check with your local distributor to see what they carry.
